

Lynn Grillo

As a Solutions Engineer with Adobe Systems, Lynn Grillo's work includes demonstrating and teaching Adobe's products for creative professionals. She is an Adobe Certified Expert in all of the Creative Suite applications including Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Acrobat, GoLive and InCopy. Lynn is also the proud holder of Adobe Print Specialist, Adobe Web Specialist and Adobe Creative Suite Master certifications.

Based in the NY metro area, a veritable publishing hub, Lynn has workflow and technology experience in multiple verticals such as book, newspaper & magazine publishing, textile design, advertising and retail. To date, she has co-authored several books on Adobe GoLive, was technical editor of Adobe InDesign CS2 Killer Tips and The Adobe InCopy book and contributes regularly to Web sites and magazines for creative professionals.

Often asked to speak at industry events, you might have seen her engaging demos of the Adobe Creative Suite at conferences such as MacWorld or Photoshop World.
